THE ART OF THE POSSIBLE: CREATING AND SUSTAINING TRANSFORMATION IN LONG-TERM CARE

A FREE 2-DAY EVENT AT VILLA MARGONI ON NOV. 12 AND AT PERLEY RIDEAU ON NOV. 13.

1 Day one: November 12, 4:30pm-8:30pm (Dinner Provided)

What is Transformation in LTC, Why is it Important, and What Does it Look Like in Practice?

2 Day two: November 13, 9am-4:15pm (Space limited this day. Lunch and refreshments provided).

How Do You Implement, Evaluate, and Sustain Specific Transformation Initiatives in LTC?

DIRECT CARE WORKERS MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR WAGE SUPPORT.

Target audience for day one: Your "transformation team" who are interested in culture change. This could include staff, volunteers, leadership, resident and family council, and board members.

Target audience for day two: We encourage all homes that have identified palliative or end-of-life care in their Quality Improvement Plans or are members of the Transformational Models in LTC Working Group to send a management /leadership representative together with a direct-teammember who is a champion of culture change or a palliative approach to care. For other homes interested in attending, please email us.
