

Deepening Community in Palliative Care

Ottawa, May 7, 2024

With Paul Born

www.paulborn.ca

Follow me on LinkedIn

Celebrating Bob as a Community

“Death is offensive to those who only value one's individual success. In death you have lost”.

“Yet when death is celebrated in community, we honor the individual but also the community from which he/she/they have come”.

Community and Chicken Soup

What is Community? 500 voices...

Mutual
Support

Working Together

Belonging

Place

Common
Good

Community

What does
community
breakdown mean
to you?

- Isolation
- Individualism
- Lack of caring and support
- Conflict and hostility
- Poverty

What does a caring community mean
to you?

- People supporting each other
- Inclusive
- Sharing opportunities

Community is good for us

Shapes our identity

Builds a sense
of belonging

To care and be cared for

Strengthens our economic prospects

Improves our health

Makes us happier

Tell me more!

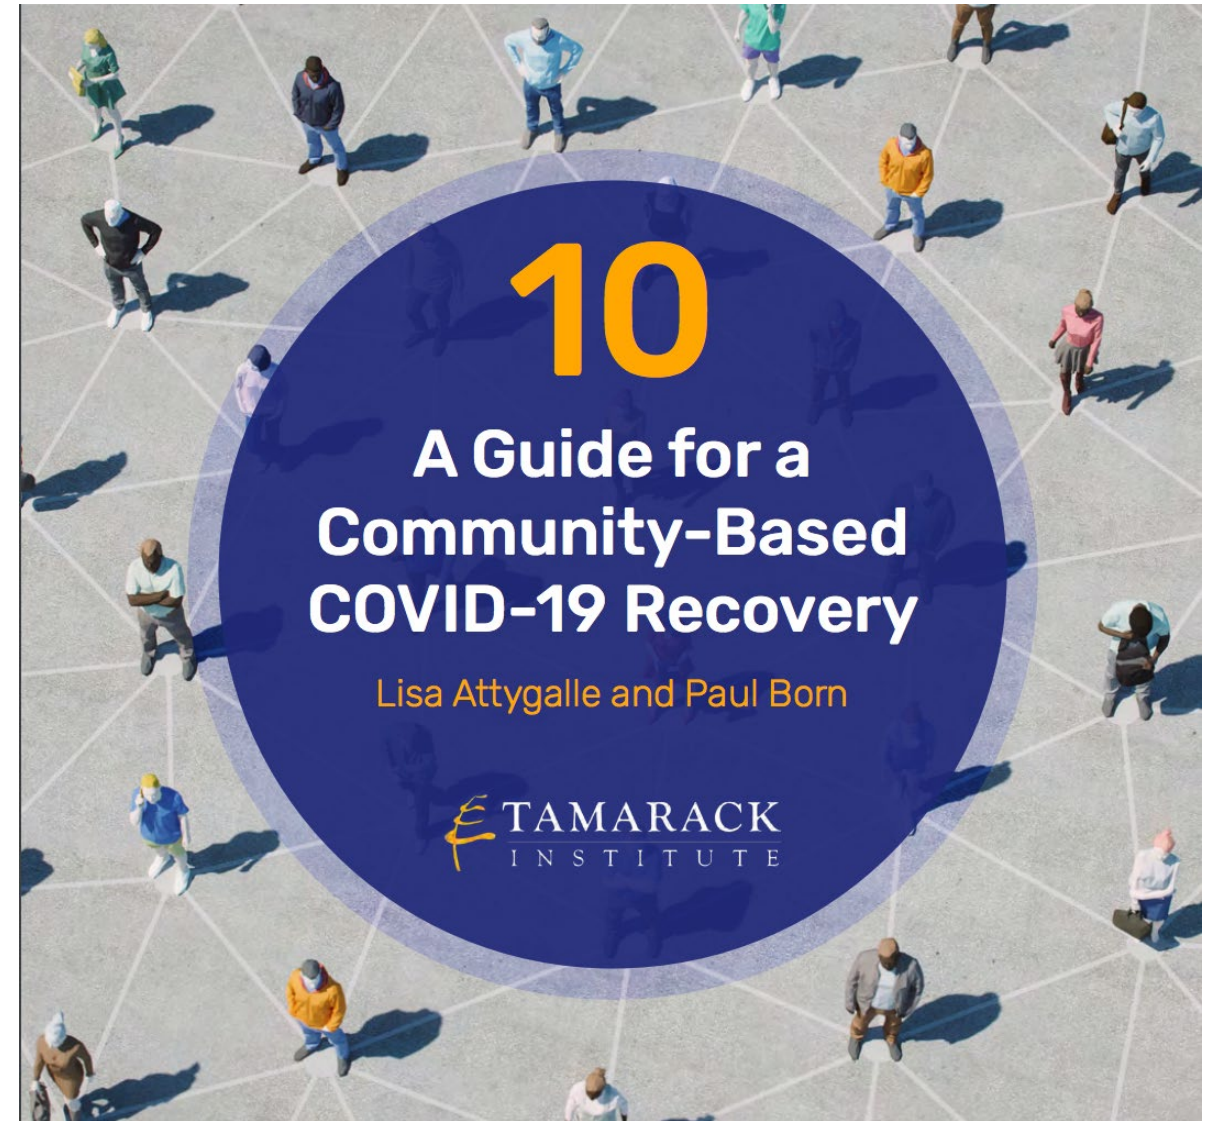

Your first or most important memory of community?

Welcome to a post COVID world.

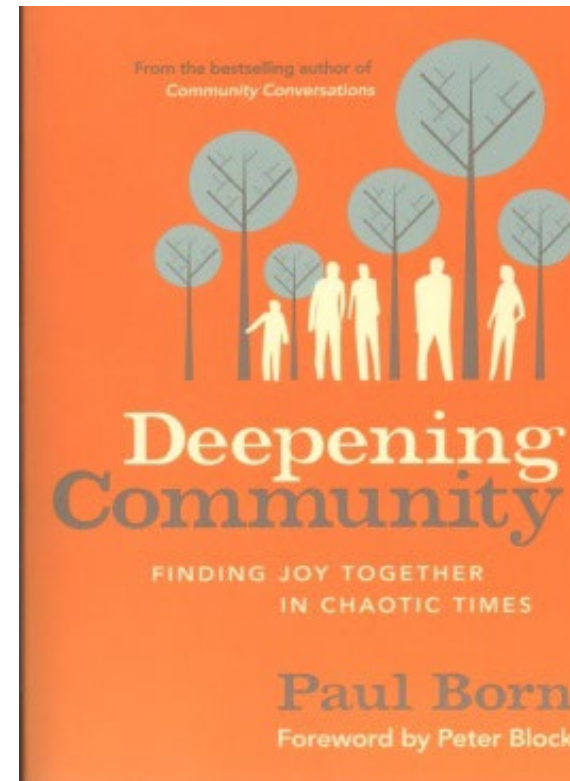

“An epidemic of loneliness”.

Vivek Admiral – Surgeon General

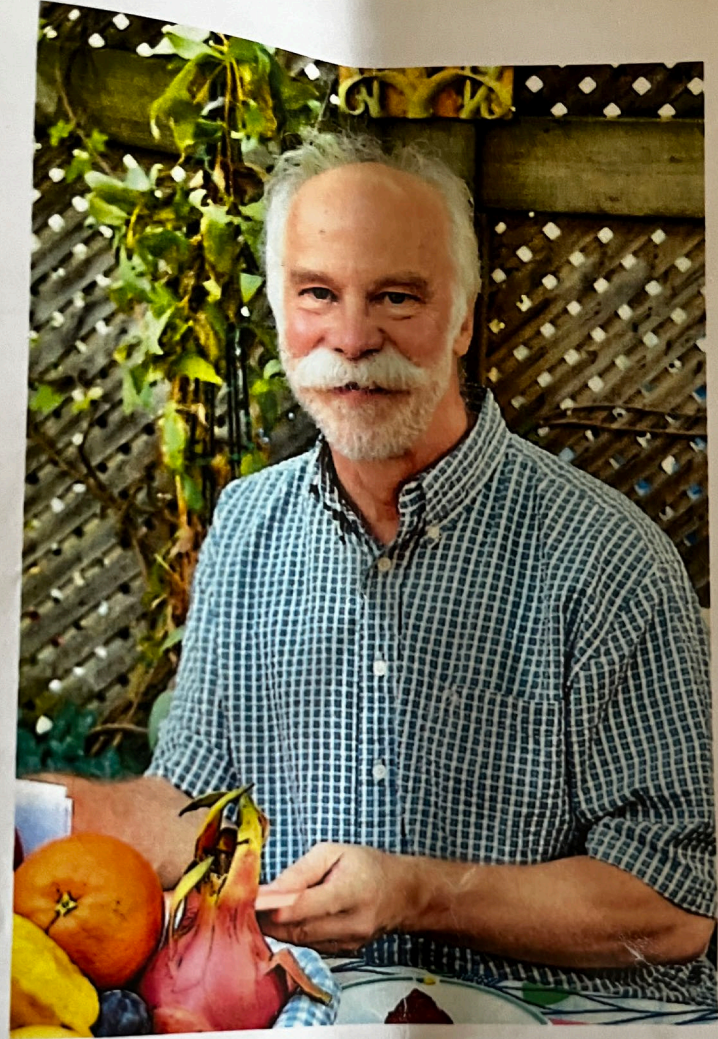

4 ways we build community

- Sharing our Stories
- Enjoying each other
- Caring for one another
- Working together for a higher purpose

“Love has a divine quality to it that death cannot take away”.

Community

Celebrating the Life of

Connect with Paul

Email: paul@paulborn.ca

Web: www.paulborn.ca

Follow me: LinkedIn

Books available on amazon and all other leading stores

Palliative Care

Building Strong Communities Through Engagement

With Paul Born

www.paulborn.ca